MISSION STATEMENT

JD's Angel Wings supports families that have lost a baby in the 3rd trimester. We will assist the bereaved in the hospital and returning home, by providing essential resources and services. To do so, we will work with hospitals, local leaders, and other support networks to develop processes that may ease the burden of the transition; affording families more time to grieve in their own unique ways

Quotes from families:

..."I'm seriously speechless. I'm a mess completely unexpected and I'm crying. I don't even know how I can and will ever repay you guys." -AC

..."Thank you so much! Everything is so beautiful, we've been so stressed out with the doctor's bill coming in. This helps so much." -KM

..."I just want to say what you are doing is amazing... I wish there were more people and/or organizations that would put effort and take the time to do some of the things I've read that you've done. So, again I just wanted to say that what you are doing is amazing." -AF
